SPECIAL COLLECTION

For Hasbro properties: trademarks do not apply outside the U.S. Do not provide artwork with ®s or TMs for the Hasbro logo, Hasbro product names, or other Hasbro graphics/logos.

No asterisks are required to denote names and logos as belonging to Hasbro vs. third party licensors.

Trademarking for U.S. and localized signage is covered by the ®s and TMs on U.S. and localized packages that are in proximity to the merchandising area.

All signage — wherever possible — should include the Hasbro logo. The Hasbro logo should NOT include TM or ® (see above).

The Hasbro copyright line should be included on all signage wherever possible:

© 2017 Hasbro. All rights reserved.

Third party licensors DO need to be credited for any merchandising that includes their licensed properties or images.

It is necessary to obtain specific information from licensors with regard to their properties — please request this information from Marketing when reviewing new guides.

The content of the licensor credit lines (and whether or not to include their logos) is governed by the particular licensor's stated preferences/instructions. The Marketing team should be in contact with the licensor to establish and confirm the licensor's preferences. This may apply to individual names and logos, usage of TMs and ®s, and the associated credit lines.

The images, products, and logos contained in this publication are owned by Hasbro and its licensors, and include copyrights and trademarks. Use of this publication is limited to Hasbro employees and authorized customers.

BRAND VOICE

To enhance the interactivity of the brand and give kids a more active role in storytelling play, LPS asks them what the story is. Pets and playsets provide a context for the narrative, but it's the child who provides the storyline.

The brand makes frequent use of two techniques to encourage kids to fill in the blanks themselves:

1. Asking direct questions about the action
 - Questions should be open-ended, not “yes or no”
 - Questions should encourage kids to come up with their own stories
2. Pointing out unusual, uncharacteristic, or otherwise surprising details
 - Copy should set up story background so that kids can decide where the action will go

EXAMPLES

The Cruise Ship is embarking on its biggest trip yet — a mystery tour! It's leaving at midnight for destinations unknown. Where could it be going?

Philomena Fintail, the minnow, has been going to the gym for weeks now but won't tell anyone why. Rumor has it that she's taking swimming lessons. Hmm... sounds a bit fishy!
